

Technical Sales Engineer – International Sales

Sell separation, vibratory and magnetic separation, metal detection and minerals and materials processing equipment. Confer with customers, company engineers and technical staff to analyze, plan, modify and develop product configurations and assess needs to size and select suitable mechanical and process equipment. Analyze and solve application problems and provide technical assistance to customers for product design, technology and engineering processes to specific customer applications. Monitor client preferences to determine focus of sales efforts. Requirements include BS, Engineering or equivalent related field. 2 years of experience in materials applications and fluency in Spanish. Travel (25 – 30 %) as required to Central and South America.

Attractive compensation and benefits package.

Send resume and cover letter to:

Eriez Manufacturing Co.
Attention: C. Williamson
P.O. Box 10608
Erie, PA 16514